

Since 2006,

a restoration team has been carefully investigating the Castle's state-of-the art construction while also preserving its unique handcrafted architectural features and elegant interiors.

This exhibit highlights some of the exciting restoration projects that have been undertaken, explores the restoration team's research discoveries, and presents some of the Castle's unsolved mysteries uncovered along the way.

Lucknow construction workers pose for a photograph in the pergola, 1913 or 1914. Courtesy of Bruce and Joanne Reynolds.