

HOMEMADE ROUNDELS

WHAT ARE ROUNDELS?

Roundels are rounded glass pieces used to decorate architecture and interior designs. Many times, this artistic feature is a mouth-blown piece of glass. At Castle in the Clouds – there are 21 different ones found throughout the home, each are hand painted and designed to highlight a particular aspect of the property. They are built directly into the doors and windows at the house and show: hunting scenes, flowers, lake views, and favored foods. These art pieces are meant to look liked stained glass.
